Gulf Coast Gardening from the Ground UP!

The UF/IFAS Santa Rosa County Cooperative Extension Service and the Santa Rosa County Master Gardeners are pleased to announce that they will be presenting their award-winning Gulf Coast Gardening from the Ground UP! garden series at both the Navarre and Milton Libraries.

These free programs are open to the public and will be presented on consecutive Saturdays, at the Navarre Library at 8484 James M. Harvell Road, then the following Saturday at the Milton Library at 5541 Alabama Street. Registration for each class will open at the respective library at 1:00PM on the day of the class. Classes will start at 1:30PM each Saturday, and should be finished by 3PM.

The schedule for 2006 is:

January 28 in Navarre (February 4 in Milton) - "The GROUND Floor" by Larry Busbee

February 11 in Navarre (February 18 in Milton) - "Trees vs. Hurricanes" by Frank Larson

February 25 in Navarre (March 4 in Milton) - "Vegetable Gardening" by Jim Tolar

March 11 in Navarre (March 18 in Milton) - "Garden Design" by Carole Simpson

March 25 in Navarre (April 1 in Milton) - "Roses & Amaryllis" by Sally Menk

Extension programs are open to all persons without regard to race, color, sex, age, disability, religion or national origin. For persons with disabilities requiring special accommodations, please contact the Santa Rosa County Extension Office at (850) 623-3868 at least 5 working days prior to the program, so that proper consideration may be given to the request.
